

EVIDENCE

Summer Workshop

2021 CALL FOR PAPERS

In light of the continuing uncertainties surrounding the pandemic, the Third Annual Evidence Summer Workshop (ESW2021) will be held online as a Zoom conference on Friday, August 6.

The Evidence Summer Workshop provides evidence scholars an annual venue to present their latest projects, share ideas, and develop lasting relationships among each other. The Workshop includes sessions for working drafts, as well as smaller breakout sessions for ideas at an earlier stage of development.

All evidence scholars, whether presenting or not, are welcome to register and attend. Those wishing to present should submit an abstract or short summary (250 words for working papers, 100 words for early ideas) by June 1 on the conference webpage, evidenceworkshop.com. We welcome submissions from scholars at all stages of their careers, though some preference will be given to those within their first decade of teaching. Selection decisions will be made by July 1.

The 2021 Evidence Summer Workshop is generously made possible by Vanderbilt Law School's Branstetter Litigation and Dispute Resolution Program.

If you have any questions, or would like to serve as a commentator on the papers, please contact any member of the Organizing Committee.

Ed Cheng (Vanderbilt), edward.cheng@vanderbilt.edu

Alex Nunn (Arkansas), ganunn@uark.edu

Julia Simon-Kerr (Connecticut), julia.simon-kerr@uconn.edu

Maggie Wittlin (Fordham), mwittlin1@fordham.edu